

The Best Book

Of course the best book is the Bible. The man who said the best book was the pocket book, tried to say something smart and failed.

A bank book is a better book than a pocket book. The thief might steal your pocket book, or you might lose it in many ways. It's gone for good, too. But in case of accident we will gladly supply you with another bank book and your funds will always be secured in our bank. Place your dependence on a bank book in preference to a pocket book every time. We will furnish you a nice one free any time you wish to open an account.

While boring for oil near Port Elizabeth, South Africa, hot water was encountered in such volume at a depth of 3,600 feet that drilling operations ceased. The well has developed a never-failing supply, and the water has been found to contain pronounced medicinal properties to such an extent that baths have been constructed.

Mrs. Powell Almost Dead.

Dry Ridge, Ky.—"I could hardly walk across the room," says Mrs. Lodia Powell, of Dry Ridge, "before I tried Cardui. I was so poorly. I was almost dead. Now I can walk four miles and do my work with much more ease. I praise Cardui for my wonderful cure." Cardui is successful in benefiting sick women, because it is composed of ingredients, that act specifically on the womanly constitution, relieving headache, backache, irregularity, misery and distress. Only a good medicine could show such continual increase in popularity as Cardui has, for the past 50 years. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic.—Advertisement.

Footman Was a Poet.

At least one domestic servant—though a male and not a female one—made a lasting contribution to English literature in the eighteenth century. This was Robert Dodsley, who as a young man served as a footman, and brought out his first works, "Servitude: a Poem," and "The Muse in Livery, or the Footman's Miscellany," while still in service. With the proceeds of these works and a farce, "The Toyshop," produced at Covent Garden, he set up as a bookseller in Pall Mall, and within a few years became the most prominent of London publishers, issuing books for Pope, Johnson and Goldsmith, inaugurating the "Annual Register," and still trifling with the muse himself, besides collecting and editing an invaluable selection of "Old Plays."—London Chronicle.

Habit of Being Happy.

Keeping oneself reasonably happy is a duty that ought not to be shirked. Science is telling us these days that to get out of the habit of enjoyment is to get depressed in vitality and vigor, to weaken in efficiency, and grow old before one's time. There is nothing like laughter—not empty-headed laughter, but the intelligent, wholesome, kindly-hearted kind—to keep people young and fresh and fit for business and the obligation of living. Of course, this is a prescription not easy to live up to always, but there is no reasonable excuse for not trying to do it. Sometimes it is just about as easy to be happy as to be miserable if one makes up his mind to it, and there is no doubt at all as to which pays the best.—Onward.
